

Garden Conservancy Northwest Network
Workshop and General Meeting Registration Form

Lakewold Gardens, Lakewood WA

Saturday 17 November 2018 9:30AM-5:00PM (Registration opens at 9:00AM)

Registration for the event is $75 US per person for those associated with member organizations to the GCNN and individual members of the Garden Conservancy. For those who are not yet members, the cost is $90. The price includes the Saturday workshop, coffee and refreshments, lunch, and garden tour.

If you are not now a member, please take this opportunity to support the Garden Conservancy's preservation work in the Pacific Northwest by enlisting your organization as a contributing member of the GCNN. Contributing memberships are $125 per organizations for a calendar year and among other things, this entitles your organization to send representatives to the two annual workshops at the membership rate. If you wish to enroll your organization in the GCNN, please indicate by checking the blank at the end of this discussion. Individual memberships are also available as a means of supporting the Garden Conservancy. To join as an individual member visit the membership portion of our website: <https://www.gardenconservancy.org/membership/join-or-renew>.
